Safeguarding Statement

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and vulnerable adults is everyone's responsibility. Everyone who comes into contact with children and their families has a role to play. Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined as protecting children from maltreatment and taking action to enable children to have the best outcomes. The term 'children' relates to everyone under the age of 18.

Any concerns, discussions and decisions made when promoting the welfare of children and the reasons for any steps taken by the Trust will be recorded in writing in accordance with the Trust's Safeguarding policy.

If you have any safeguarding concerns you can share your concerns using the QR code.
